1.3 References to the Act

Unless otherwise indicated, a reference in this Constitution (including in the marginal notes) to a Chapter, Part, Division or section is a reference to a Chapter, Part, Division or section of the Act.

2. Application of the Act

2.1 Replaceable rules do not apply

The replaceable rules in the Act do not apply to the Company.

2.2 Inconsistency

Where the Act:

- 2.2.1 confers a right on a Member or on another person;
- 2.2.2 restricts the exercise of rights or powers; or
- 2.2.3 requires a procedure to be followed before a certain action is taken by the Company, the Directors, the Members or any other person (for example, passing a resolution or exercising a right or power under this Constitution), then the provisions of this Constitution will be subject to the exercise of that right or the application of that restriction, and all relevant persons must follow any required procedure.

Part 2 Company structure, purposes and powers

3. Company limited by guarantee

The Company is limited by guarantee and the liability of Members is limited as provided in this Constitution.

4. Purposes and powers

4.1 Purposes

6.5 Not transferable

Membership is not transferable.

6.6 Fees

- The Directors may prescribe, as they think fit, any membership and other fees payable by Members, and when those fees are payable.
- 6.6.2 The Directors must give Members not less than one month's notice of any change to the fees.
- 6.6.3 If a Member does not pay any prescribed fees within two months after they are due and payable, and does not rectify that default within one month of being given notice to do so, then the Member ceases to be a Member when that one month period expires.

7. Disciplinary action

7.1 Grounds for taking disciplinary action

The Directors may, by a resolution passed by at least 75% of those present and voting at a meeting of the Directors, expel a Member, temporarily suspend membership rights, or take other disciplinary action (excluding imposition of fines) against a Member who:

- 7.1.1 did not comply with this Constitution;
- 7.1.2 acted in a way which, in the opinion of the Directors, indicates that the Member will not support the principal purposes of the Company; or
- 7.1.3 engaged in conduct which is, in the opinion of the Directors, prejudicial to the interests of the Company.

7.2 Notices to Member

- 7.2.1 At least 15 Business Days before the Directors hold a meeting to consider a resolution under rule 7.1, the Directors must give the Member a written notice which states:

  - (b) the proposed resolution; and
  - (c) that the Member may, before the meeting, give the Directors a written statement regarding the allegations to be considered at the meeting.
- 7.2.2 Promptly after the Directors pass a resolution under rule 7.1, the Secretary must give the relevant Member a notice of the resolution.

7.3 Resolution taking effect

If the Directors pass a resolution under rule 7.1, any suspension or cessation of the relevant Member's membership will take effect at the end of the meeting at which the resolution was passed.

7.4 No liability

The Company has no liability to a Member arising from the Member being expelled from the Company or being subject to other disciplinary action under a resolution under rule 7.1.

8. Cessation of membership

8.1 Grounds for cessation

A Member ceases to be a Member if the Member:

- 8.1.1 gives the Company a written resignation;

- 8.1.3 ceases to be a Member under rule 6.6 (Fees);
- 8.1.4 is expelled under rule 7 (Disciplinary action);
- 8.1.5 (if an individual) dies or becomes mentally incapacitated or bankrupt;

- 8.1.7 becomes, as determined by the Directors in their absolute discretion, an untraceable Member because the Member has ceased to be located at, attend or otherwise communicate with their address as shown in the Register. An untraceable Member ceases to be a Member on the date of the Directors' determination.

8.2 Removal from Register

8.2.1 If a Member ceases to be a Member, the Secretary must remove the Member's name from the Register.

- 8.2.2 On the removal of a Member's name from the Register:
  - (a) the Member will forfeit all rights and privileges attaching to membership and all rights which the Member may have against the Company arising from the membership; and
  - (b) the Company will have no liability to that Member arising from the cessation of membership or the Member's name being removed from the Register.

8.3 Surviving liability

Any Member who ceases to be a Member remains liable:

- 8.3.1 for any money owing to the Company; and
- if the Company is wound up within one year after the date of cessation of membership for the Member's contribution under rule 5.2.

9. Member's power of attorney

9.1 Member acting through an attorney

- 9.1.1 Rule 9.1.2 applies if a Member executes or proposes to execute any document, or does or proposes to do anything, by an attorney, where that document or act is relevant to the Company or to the membership.
- 9.1.2 The Company may require that Member to:
  - (a) give the Company a certified copy of the power of attorney; and
  - (b) provide satisfactory evidence that the power of attorney is effective and continues to be in force.

9.2 Continuing power of attorney

Any power of attorney granted by a Member will, as between the Company and that Member, continue in force and may be acted on unless the Company receives express written notice of its revocation or of the death of the Member who granted it.

9.3 Attorney as representative at general meeting

If a Member wishes to be represented by an attorney at a general meeting or an adjourned meeting, then the Member must comply with rule 20.3 of this Constitution.

Part 4 General meetings – arrangements

10. Who may call a general meeting

10.1 Calling general meetings

- 10.1.1 A meeting of Members may only be called by the Directors.
- 10.1.2 The Directors must call a meeting of Members if required to do so by the Act.

10.1.3 Members may request or call and arrange to hold a general meeting according to the Act.

Notice of each general meeting must be given to each Member, each Director and the Company's auditor (if any).

11.2 Period of notice

- 11.2.1 At least 21 days' notice must be given of a general meeting. Shorter notice may be given where permitted by the Act.
- 11.2.2 A notice of general meeting must be given according to rule Part 13 (Notices) and the procedures set out in the Act.

11.3 Contents of notice

A notice of general meeting:

- 11.3.1 must contain all information required by the Act; and
- 11.3.2 may specify a place for the Company to receive, or electronic means by which a Member may give the Company, a proxy appointment or a proxy appointment authority.

11.4 Notice to postpone, change venue, or cancel meeting

- 11.4.1 Subject to section 249D(5) of the Act, the Directors may:
  - (a) postpone a general meeting to a date and time determined by the Directors;
  - (b) change the place (whether physical, virtual or both), or change or remove the technology to be used, for a general meeting; or
  - (c) cancel a general meeting (other than a meeting requested or called by Members under rule 10.1.3).
- 11.4.2 Before the date of the relevant meeting, the Directors must give notice of any action they take under rule 11.4.1 to all persons entitled to receive notices of a general meeting.

11.5 Defective notice or failure to receive

- 11.5.1 Anything done and any resolution passed at a general meeting are not invalidated by:
  - (a) an accidental failure to give a notice of a general meeting, a notice of postponement, change of venue or cancellation, or a proxy form, to a person entitled to receive it; or

- (b) that person's failure to receive that notice or form.
- 11.5.2 By attending a general meeting, a person waives all objections that person may have to:
  - (a) any failure to be given a notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of that meeting unless, at the beginning of the meeting, the person objects to the holding of that meeting; and
  - (b) consideration of any matter at that meeting which was not included as an item of business in the notice of meeting, unless that person objects to considering that matter when it is presented.

12. Business at general meetings

12.1 Business at AGMs

The business of an AGM may include:

- 12.1.1 any of the following matters, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
  - (a) consideration of the annual financial report, directors' report and auditor's report;
  - (b) election of directors;
  - (c) appointment of the Company's auditor (if any); and
  - (d) fixing the remuneration of the Company's auditor (if any);
- 12.1.2 any business which under this Constitution or the Act is required to be transacted at an AGM; and
- 12.1.3 any other business which may lawfully be transacted at a general meeting.

Part 5 General meetings – proceedings

13. Reference to 'Member' in this Part

Unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to a Member in Part 5 of this Constitution means that Member present in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative.

14. Quorum at general meeting

14.1 Requirement for quorum

14.1.1 No business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the commencement of business. This requirement does not apply to the election of a chair or the adjournment of the meeting.

- 14.1.2 A quorum of Members is three Members entitled to vote on a resolution at the meeting. However, if there is only one Member who is entitled to vote on a resolution at the meeting, then a quorum is that Member.
- 14.1.3 If a quorum is present at the beginning of a meeting, then it is taken to be present throughout the meeting unless the chair of the meeting declares otherwise (at the chair's own motion or at the request of a Member present at the meeting).
- 14.1.4 In determining whether a quorum is present:
  - (a) if a Member has appointed more than one proxy or attorney only one of the proxies or attorneys is counted;
  - (b) if a person is attending the meeting both as a Member and as a proxy, attorney or Representative that person is counted only once; and
  - (c) if the meeting is held as a Virtual Meeting or a Hybrid Meeting, then all persons attending the meeting remotely are taken for all purposes to be present in person at the meeting while so attending.

14.2 What happens if quorum not present

- 14.2.1 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting, then:
  - (a) that meeting is automatically dissolved if it was requested or called by Members; and
  - (b) (in any other case) that meeting is adjourned:
    - (i) to the same time and place (whether physical, virtual or both) seven days later; or
    - (ii) to another day, time and place (whether physical, virtual or both) determined by the Directors and notified to all persons entitled to receive notices of a general meeting. If the adjourned meeting will be held as a Virtual Meeting or Hybrid Meeting, that notification must include sufficient information on how to participate in that meeting remotely.
- 14.2.2 At an adjourned general meeting, those Members present at that meeting are a quorum. This rule 14.2.2 overrides rule 14.1.2.

15. Chair of general meeting

15.1 Who chairs a general meeting

- 15.1.1 Subject to rule 15.1.2, the chair of Directors' meetings will be the chair of each general meeting.
- 15.1.2 The chair of a general meeting will be the person elected by a majority of the Directors present at that meeting if:
  - (a) there is no chair of Directors' meetings; or

- (b) the chair of Directors' meetings is:
  - (i) not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the general meeting; or
  - (ii) unwilling to chair the general meeting.
- 15.1.3 If no chair is elected under rule 15.1.2, then the chair of the general meeting will be, in order of precedence:
  - (a) a Director present at that meeting, as elected by a majority of the Directors present;
  - (b) the only Director present; or
  - (c) (if no Director is present or is willing to take the chair) a Member present at that meeting, as elected by a majority of the Members present.

15.2 Acting Chair for part of general meeting

- 15.2.1 For the purpose of considering any specific business during a general meeting or for a discrete part of a general meeting, the chair may nominate another person present at that meeting to be the acting chair of that meeting (Acting Chair), with all of the chair's powers (except the power to adjourn that meeting).
- 15.2.2 The Acting Chair must be:
  - (a) a Director present at the meeting; or
  - (b) (if no person described in rule 15.2.2(a) is present and willing to act) a Member.
- 15.2.3 If a document appoints the chair of a general meeting as proxy for a part of the proceedings for which an Acting Chair is nominated, then the document is taken to be in favour of the Acting Chair for that part of the proceedings.

15.3 Chair's conduct of general meetings

- 15.3.1 The chair of a general meeting (including any Acting Chair or other person acting with the authority of the chair) may do the following:
  - (a) (general conduct and procedures) determine the general conduct of the meeting and the procedures to adopt at the meeting, including the procedure to elect Directors;
  - (b) (disputes on procedure) determine any disputes about questions of procedure at that meeting;
  - (c) (security arrangements) require any person wishing to attend the meeting to comply with security arrangements that the chair considers appropriate;
  - (d) (orderly conduct) do anything the chair considers appropriate for the orderly conduct of the meeting;
  - (e) (procedures for debates and votes) adopt any procedure which is necessary or desirable, in the chair's opinion, for:
    - (i) proper and orderly debate or discussion; or

- (ii) the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the meeting;
- (f) (terminate debate) (having regard to the Act) terminate discussion or debate on any matter if the chair considers it necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the meeting;
- (g) (disputes as to votes) determine, in good faith, any dispute about the admission or rejection of any vote;
- (h) (disallow amendment or new business) (subject to the Act) disallow:
  - (i) any amendment to be moved to a resolution set out in the notice of meeting; or
  - (ii) any business to be transacted at the meeting unless the general nature of the business is stated in the notice of meeting; and
- (i) (withdraw resolution) withdraw from consideration by the meeting any resolution proposed in the notice of meeting (other than a resolution proposed by the Members or required by Law).
- 15.3.2 Any decision made under rule 15.3.1 is final.

15.4 Adjourning a general meeting

- 15.4.1 The chair of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may adjourn that meeting to any time and place, at the chair's discretion. Only the chair may demand a poll on any resolution concerning the adjournment.
- 15.4.2 Only unfinished business of the initial general meeting may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting.
- 15.4.3 If a general meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, then notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to Members as if it were an original general meeting.

16. Venues and technology

16.1 How general meetings may be held

- 16.1.1 A general meeting may be held at one or more physical locations, as a Virtual Meeting or as a Hybrid Meeting.
- 16.1.2 The Directors may determine the technology or technologies to use for conducting a general meeting as a Virtual Meeting or a Hybrid Meeting, as long as any technology used complies with any requirements of the Act.

16.2 Place and time

A general meeting is taken to be held at the place and at the time determined under the Act and otherwise by the chair.

16.3 Virtual or Hybrid Meetings – voting, tabling documents and technical difficulties

16.3.1 This rule 16.3 applies if a general meeting is held as a Virtual Meeting or a Hybrid Meeting.

- 16.3.2 The meeting must be conducted in compliance with any policies and procedures that the Directors set for general meetings held as a Virtual Meeting or a Hybrid Meeting. Without limitation, those policies and procedures may relate to:
  - (a) verifying the identity of the Member or of the Member's proxy, attorney or Representative;
  - (b) the security of the technology used; or
  - (c) the use of technology to pass resolutions at a general meeting.
- 16.3.3 A vote taken at the meeting must be taken on a poll, and not on a show of hands.
- 16.3.4 A document which is required or permitted to be tabled at the meeting is taken to be tabled at the meeting if it is:
  - (a) given before the meeting to the persons entitled to attend the meeting (whether physically or remotely); or
  - (b) made accessible during the meeting to the persons attending the meeting (whether physically or remotely).
- 16.3.5 If technical difficulties arise before or during the meeting such that a person entitled to participate cannot participate in the meeting, then the chair may, unless the Act otherwise requires:
  - (a) adjourn the meeting either for a reasonable period to fix the technology, or to another time and place that the chair decides; or
  - (b) allow the meeting to continue (with the same technology or with different technology selected by the chair), if a quorum of Members remains able to participate in the meeting. For clarity, any resolution passed at the continued meeting is valid.

- 18.2.2 the proposed resolution is taken to have been lost.

A decision of a general meeting may not be invalidated on the ground that a person voting at the meeting was not entitled to do so.

18.4 Voting by a show of hands

- 18.4.2 Unless a poll is required or demanded as described above, the chair's declaration that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried, or carried by a specified majority, or lost, together with an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, are conclusive evidence of the result. Neither the chair nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour or against.

- 18.5.5 (Result of poll) The result of the poll taken on a resolution at a general meeting will determine whether that resolution is carried or lost. That result may be announced in a manner and at the time (whether during that meeting or afterwards) that the chair considers appropriate.

18.5.6 (Meeting may continue) After a poll has been demanded at a general meeting, that meeting may continue for the transaction of business other than the question on which the poll was demanded.
